

TRANSITIONAL ENCAMPMENTS

Pathway to Housing

- City or County permitted
- Nonprofit operated
- Community supported
- Crime goes down wherever they're located
- People transition to better circumstances at a higher rate
- Most cost-efficient
- Creates real community within
 - Weekly meetings
 - Food preparation/sharing, community meals
 - Community space
- Interpersonal healing
 - 10x10' of personal space
 - Case management program (addiction, housing, mental health, education, trade skills, etc.)
 - Personal autonomy is protected and supported
- Community agreements
 - 10 hours of service in and outside of the village
 - no drugs or alcohol use within
 - no theft or violence
 - no repeated disruptions
- Neighborhood
 - Clean-up & safety crew regular surveys several blocks around village
 - Cleaner and safer with a reduction of people sleeping outside in the area
 - An easy point of contact for neighbors to volunteer and directly aid local homelessness

For lots of supporting data about TRANSITIONAL ENCAMPMENTS:
<https://www.warmingcenterprogram.com/certified-nonprofit-encampments>